

Pascagoula Public Library
Local History & Genealogy Department
Gatti Family

GATTI-KOHLER.
	One of the spring brides-elect, Miss Rita Louise Kohler, gave her friends a surprise when they read of her marriage on Saturday at St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans. Miss Kohler met her fiance, Mr. Ernest A. Gatti, in New Orleans, where she was spending a few days enroute to Texas, and they decided to make the trip their honeymoon. Mr. Gatti will join his ship, the "Southseas," on which he is engineer, in Houston, the early part of the week, leaving his bride happily domiciled there at 3302 Fannin street.
	As both of the young folks mentioned in the above notice from the society columns of Sunday's Mobile Register were former residents of this city, the news of their marriage will be read with pleasure by their many friends here. Mr. Gatti is the son of Mr. T. C. Gatti of this city and was reared here; while the bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. W. F. Kohler, a merchant here during ship-

3-3-1922